 Selection procedure of countries

CHI Netherlands is an organisation that supported one of our events. The CHI 2021 event has set a basis for a ticket price and corresponding reduced rates for participants from countries with an extreme currency difference to the Euro. We have decided to adopt the categorisation of countries for our discounted rate.

How to apply for a discount

If you fall into the other category, you can buy a ticket at that special price by entering the discount code UXFEST-X22 when registering.

- First, you add the ticket to your cart by clicking Add to cart.
- In the next step, you enter the discount code by clicking the Got a discount code button.

The discount code is: UXFEST-X22

If you're eligible for an discount because you're a student or unemployed, please leave a remark in the registration form in the additional remarks field. Your country of residence we'll see in your billing details. There's no need to leave a further remark when this applies.

Early bird rates are automatically applied based on the date of purchase of a ticket.

Note: the discount code is applicable for the entire shopping cart, so you can only buy multiple tickets simultaneously if the same category applies to all the tickets.
